often absent or tardy through SMS or phone call. in order to encourage them to routinely attend the classes.

- Along with helping them succeed academically, we encourage students to take an active role in all of their extracurricular activities.
- For every 20 students, one of our faculty members is assigned as a mentor or counselor; they regularly engage with the students in friendly interactions and assist them in resolving their individual issues and achieving their objectives.
- Assigning regular homework is an essential part of our teaching approach for slow learners because they give students the opportunity to practice and revise their understanding of the subject on their own, resulting in a complete understanding of the subject.

Advanced Learners/Bright students

- Bright students are those who excel at problem-solving and also perform well on midterm exams; these students are identified and the following strategies are used.
- Students are encouraged to join professional organizations such as IEEE, IETE, and ISTE in order to advance their overall skills.
- They are put to the test with a variety of tasks and assignments in order to improve their performance and skills.
- Based on performance and talents demonstrated within classroom, a class representative is chosen for each class. The class representative assumes responsible for organizing departmental seminars and workshops that provide opportunities for interaction with academic and professional specialists.
- They are motivated in taking internships in industries that are related to their core subjects.
